the sime moment, as it in echo, the fire of the other batteries answered to that of No. 5. The spectacle was grand. The Marshal and his staff proceeded from battery to battery, encouraging the troops with his presence.

Each captain of artillery, fearlessly seated as the parapet of his battery, gave orders for the successive discharges of each guil, and coally watched the effect of the builders, statistic to his men, a "little higher," or a "little lower," in order to make the fire more effect FROM EU. OSTILITIES SNCH AND GE THE CI. pt. Holdredge sday morning ver,' in order to make the fire more effec-

the editors of

have received with commer.

ingraf Decem-

f those tormer

to expect that ve opened their Such, how-besiegers con-

the utmost ac-

officer was des

to the citadel. er summons to ed on the side

o'clock precise-

in case of teaced and readr.

duration. At in Fort Monts.

from the Duta mainder of the was kept up is exactness. The nd the spectacle ondents of the Yuon, Dec. 5.

have taken from morning papers

.—1st Bulleting g last night and ding several bat-nished, received

I the signal we enced from de immediately Sa immasked. The llo also fired up-

n are served by

. At 3 o'clock len on the city.

was taken and ase of the worst.

at their cannon.

t to any attack

adel. made no more-

-Colonel of the

on the tower of o'clock, that disthe citadel.

chem, Dec. 4.

etly, the citadel

nally some shot y have done but ring torn up, have le, notwithstand-d upon them, and e cannon by that lution aras taken

ry the 16 pieces i by a road which citadel. It was expecting such a erceive them, and een it was only plan was execut-necess. The sen-ed it, and in an and balls were let were killed and the guns were carperienced officers uch praise coals des by whom this of the ground pre-engineers will res-of Antwerp man

s of cancon vil

is of canoon will.

To-morrow 4.

Lus the first in

le. The stilling

n hours pf the high

150 times, making

nillets, which sil
citatel every days

pf howitzers, and

threction may be of hawitzers seed threction may be only fire one shell his, however, and ombs, which west y calculated, fill shall mounted his At 11, a signal ment the Murshill the centre No. 4 mandant of Arthur and Arthur were witten in the first shot, which art creek, repeated wire le Rot. It

TWERP.

In the twinkling of an eye the parapets of he citallel which had been crowded with latch efficers, were deserted, and not one of nem to be seen. One could so well follow to course of the balls from Fort Montebello hat the earth of the parapete might have been en firing about every time they were struck. The citalel returned the fire but slowly. The citater returned the fire but slowly. The discharges had not been much more frequent than they were for the last few days. We remarked with pleasure in the trenches wong papils of the Belgian Military about to familiarize their ears to the terrific lof cannon.

At noon the bittery No. 1, erected in Fort ontebello, had dismounted two pieces in ne towards the citadel.

It is said that the order will be given toabout 60 yards from the glacis of the cita-I am not able to give you any news of at is passing on the left bank of the Scheldt, t there also must be some fighting, because see smake. In the midst of this dreadful flict Marshal Gerrard preserves wonderful ing froid. He has expressed his satisfaction a thicking that Antworp is now free from ager. General Chasse attacked by the bat-No. 1 of Fort Montebello, and not havg fired on the city, 'tis to be hoped there nothing to fear for the people of Antwerp. 2 o'clock .- The fire continues on both es, but so great is the smoke that it is imsible to see its effects. It will be contied during the night, but less briskly than ting the day.

An order has been given to bring from order the fasctines and gabions.

4 o'clock.—The Marshall is still in the order.

An officer resident at Antwerp who has the e alvantage at this moment of access to citadel, has furnished the following acout of the military observations on the part

the Datch garrison:

ANTWERP, Dec. 4.

Dering Friday night, Saturday and Saturity night, the Dutch continued firing about shells an hour. On Sunday at 10 o'clock, which from 80 to 100 men. y made a sortic with from 80 to 100 men, order to make a reconnuisance, but they re driven back at the point of the Dyonet, en the captain of artillery who commande sing moment, as if in echo, the fire of the town, the walls of which bastion seem to or four companies came out of the citated and

THE CITADEL OF ANTWERP.
A second edition of the New-York Commercial Advertiser, dated at half past three P. M. announces the arrival of the ship Havre, from Havre, with Paris Journals to the 10th and Havre to the 12th inclusive.

It is reported that the citadel had surren-dered-but there is no mention of the circumstance in the Paris papers of the 10th, or in the Havre of the 11th. This report is brought by the Capt. of the flavre.

Intelligence from the seat of war in Belgium is to the 8th of Dec. inclusive.

The journals of observers at the scene of section rice hourt bottom is to the sene of section rice hourt bottom.

watched the movements of both sides. kets, as well as bombs, were discharged by the besieged without interruption.

All approach to the town, by water, was cut off, and Gen. Chasse was deprived of all intercourse with his friends without the cita-

el. The works of the besiegers are hourly advancing towards the citauel, and Marshal Gerard in his general orders speaks with confidence of the approaching capture of the errofficers. The order is to fire slowly of data good aim. This is most strictly ordered. Every one is astonished at the slight esistance made by Chasse. There are few destroyed. Bronte, a town situated nine errors in the treoches, but a great number in leagues from Catania; and which contained a whether it has done any mischief. The incomplete of Antwerp will be memorable.

Eleven o'clock. The 52d regiment lost yesterday 17 grenadiers and had some would as whether it has done any mischief. The incomplete of the covered way. A mortar is directed against, but four quarter of St. Andre, but it is not known whether it has done any mischief. The incomplete of Antwerp will be memorable.

vigour till towards its close, when it become signals from the frigates. So newhat relaxed. The battery of Montebello, which is placed rather more favourably 300 altogether. than the rest, has dismounted nearly all the pieces that were opposed in it .- The citadel Marshal Gerard to the Minister of War: has taken fire several times, but the flames have been immediately extinguished, except in one instance, when the conflagration last-but it is now completely restored. Two new mortar-batteries are being established on the right, one of which will be mandant of the trenches. The Prince has ready to play within an hour, and the other under his command the 30th of the line, a by night. The waters have not permitted of the fort de Kiel, and consequently this work must remain almost without being at tacked, it not being accessible in the present state of the siege except on its left face. The bastion of Albe, which faces the town, and the the morning being so wet the musk is it the reach would not go off. The French did characteristic the Dutch, who came from the perceive the Dutch, who came from the toth Dec.

There was a report of the death of Gen. Duke's and Ferdinand's hastions, are sheltered to Paris on the Dutch, who came from the 10th Dec.

There was a report of the death of Gen. Duke's and Ferdinand's hastions, are sheltered to precise the Dutch, who came from the 10th Dec.

King Otho left Munich for his Kingdom of Laurent, the capture of which is indispensation. the 10th Dec.

King Otho left Manich for his Kingdom of Laurent, the capture of which is indispensa. I sent him. Accept, etc.

COUNT GERARD

The reason why the French batterier did

The apparent indolence of the besieged during the past days may now be attributed to their hopes that we might have been led by our confidence of success to commit some and a small number of gun-boats. All the great error, but they have deceived them.

The reason why the French batterier did

The reason why the French batt

were compelled to return on board.

The reason which the French batterier did not sooner open of upon the citadel, was that Marshal Gerard has been negotiating for the neutrality of the town.

GREAU BRITAIN.

The English paper give note of active preparation for the elections. The tory candidates avail themselv's freely of the Butch question; and it is intinated, in some quarters, neutral to the content of the citadels and it is intinated, in some quarters, neutral to the morning—The Luncity so the content of the elections. The tory candidates avail themselv's freely of the Butch question; and it is intinated, in some quarters, neutral to the morning—The Luncity is said to have occasioned themselves freely of the citadels and six of their officers have been wounded more or less severely.

Evening,—New butteries erecting on the 2d parallel. Two tets de sapes have been introduced in the covered way of St. Laurent, and the assault may be made to-morrow. Four workmen labour behind each other, so near the enemy that they see them and hear their blows. The Matabella, bad since the pieces in the citable. Load stras followed these hits, and the solution of which was acknowled these hits, and the presence of this band, but the idea was the presence of the band, and the presence of the idea was the presence of the presentation for the elections. The there the presentation for the citable, and it is intripated, in some quarter, and wanted the presentation for the citable, and the presentation for the citable, and the presentation for the citable, and

STILL LATER FROM EUROPE.

THREE DAYS LAVER FROM ANTWERP—CONTINUATION OF HOSTILITIES, AND REPORTED FALL OF

might. The firing continued with unabited with their effects.

Berchem, Dec, 5, 10 o'clock, A. M.— Nothing worth notice passed during the night. The firing continued with unabited communicate with his government only by

The loss of the French does not exceed

The following letter has been addressed by HEAD QUARTERS At Berchem, Dec. v.

Sir-Our attacks continue. The works that this was from General Chasse's having of last right and to-day have enabled us to that this was from General Chasse's having ordered some useless buildings to be destabled. Laurent. The fire from the citadel has been Intelligence train the seat from in Belgi.

The journals of observers at the scene of action give hourly notice of every occurrence.

Throughout the whole of the 8th of Dec the attack was vigorously plied by the assailants.

They were encouraged by the presence of King Leopold, who was in the city, and watched the movements of both sides. Mustice is now completely restored.

The purphism of Dec inclusive.

Another battery has also ry from a part of the front of their works opposite the city, and to place the pieces on Montebello sustained, spfficient damage to be destined to be destroyed.—Our batteries have suffered, but not days. The Dutch availed themselves of the middle of the night to remove some artille rail. Fort opposite the city, and to place the pieces on boliged to suspend its fire during the night, watched the movements of both sides. Musvery destructive to us. To-day it has been the turn of the Duke of Orleans to be comfine and excellent regiment. His Royal the trenches to be carried beyond the capital Highness still displays the same ardor in the discharge of the duties which has taken upon himself. The King of the Belgians has just arrived from Brussels. His Majesty alighted at my head quarters, but has left them again for Antwerp, where he will pro-bably remain a few days. I enclose copies of a letter which I received last night from General Chassee, and of the answer which

The best of the Datch, who came from the best of the the captile, and the same state keep to the the captile, and the same state keep to the the captile, and the same state keep to the the captile of the same state keep to the same same same state keep to the same same same state keep to the same state to the same state keep to the same state to the same state

The whole citadel was enveloped in smoke, which the incessant fire of the small arms and mortars of the besieged, served to increase. On our part, the batteries at all points redoubled their fire, in the hop of augmenting the confusion of the place.

Our whole loss, to the present moment, as amongst the Mothers in Israel, never was considered as amongst the Mothers in Israel, never was a samongst the Mothers in Isr Our whole loss, to the present moment, the Melhodist Church. sho was constructed on the present moment, the Melhodist Church. sho was constructed on the present moment, the Melhodist Church. sho was constructed on the present moment, the Melhodist Church. sho was constructed on the present moment, the Melhodist Church. sho was constructed on the present moment, the Melhodist Church. sho was constructed on the present moment, the Melhodist Church. sho was constructed on the present moment, the Melhodist Church. sho was constructed on the present moment, the Melhodist Church. sho was constructed on the present moment, the Melhodist Church. sho was constructed on the present moment, the Melhodist Church. sho was constructed on the present moment, the Melhodist Church. sho was constructed on the present moment, the Melhodist Church. sho was constructed on the present moment, the Melhodist Church. sho was constructed on the present moment, the Melhodist Church. sho was constructed on the present moment, the Melhodist Church. sho was constructed on the present moment, the present moment and the present moment.

of the town, the walls of which position seem to be materially in least of the companies came out of the clinder and fired upon our working parties, and early this surrounding the citiadet of the town, to prevent the Elegians from citig hostilely, yet at there are great apprehensions for the safety of it.

The third edition of the London Standard of the evening of the third edition of the London Standard of the evening of the third edition of the London by the stame dates as the abore. A courier arrived at Brussels from Antiverp, on the evening of Wednesdy the 5th, staing that the French array so and which are great difficulty in reaching, whence they discharge upon us a great number of the state news as brought to London by the steamboat Sir adward Banks, the passengers are yell at the courier of the French havin suade an attack on the Tete to the Elegians french party being exposed to the fare from the battery and the guiness.

The latest news as prought to London by the steamboat Sir adward Banks, the passengers are of which troof fit a report that a party of the French havin suade an attack on the Tete and the French party being exposed to the fare from the battery and the guiness.

The Datch at Geleve-Landon by the first of grape which we have great difficulty in reaching, whence to the fare from the battery and the guiness.

The Datch at Geleve-Landon by the first of the first of the french havin suade an attack on the Tete and the proposition of the battery and the guiness.

The Datch at Geleve-Landon by the first of th The apparent indolence of the besieged during the past days may now be attributed to their hopes that we might have here the river. The apparent indolence of the besieged during the past days may now be attributed ing to go down the river. The apparent indolence of the besieged during the past days may now be attributed ing to go down the river. The apparent indolence of the besieged during the past days may now be attributed ing to go down the river.

Departed this life on Thursday night last, the 26th inst. after a severe illness, Mr. STEPHEN LEE, Sen. of South River, in Anne-Arundel county.

The many virtues, upright and industrious habits, united in the character of this worthy man, endeared him to his family, and to a numerous circle of neighbours and friends. Mr. Lee left a widow, and a large family of children, tho' it is a satisfaction to them to know that he died in the triumphs of faith, yet they cannot but long lament his irreparable loss.

On the same day, Dr. THOMAS Cow-

FOR RENT.

The DWELLING HOUSE and pre-mises, lately occupied by Mr. J. L. Boyd, situated on Church circle and adjointhe dweiling house of the subscriber Possession may be had on the 5th of Februa-For terms apply to

HENRY MAYNADIER.

FOR SALE.

HE subscriber is authorised to sell, and will offer at Public Sale, on SATUR-DAY, the 2d instant, at 12 o'clock, M. if not previously disposed of at private sale, all

TRACT OF LAND

at present occupied by the subscriber, of which the late James McCuiloch died seized, containing FOUR HUNDRED AND SIXTY ACRES.

This land lies near the South river Rery. The improvements consist of two good DWELLING HOUSES, which have been lately repaired.

The terms of sale will be made known on application to the subscriber, or to Somerville Pinkney, Esquire, Annapolis. Persons wishing to purchase are invited to visit and examine January 10 DAVID M. BROGDEN. the property.

Sold a prize of $100 --- Combination Numbers 14, 39, 45, in the Maryland State Lottery, Class No. 1, which was presented and eash paid-Sold at Dubois' Lucky Office.

MARYLAND

STATE LOTTERY,
CLISS NO. 2, for 1831.

Approved by Wm. R. Stuart, Edward Hughes
and J. S. Williams, Commissioners,
To be drawn at Baltimore,

On SATURDAY 2d of Feb. 1839, AT FOUR O'CLUCK, P. M. Sixty-six Number Lottery/ Ten Drawn Ballota

SCHEET	VIII.
1 prize of	812,000
1 prize of	5,000
1 prize of	2,000
1 prize of	1,500
1 price of	1,300
5 prizes of	1,000
10 prizes of	500
10 prizes of	400
10 prizes of	300
40 prizes of	150
40 prizes of	100
56 prizes of	50
56 prizes of	40
56 prizes of	30
112 prizes of	20
2,240 prizes of	. 8
5,400 prizes of	4
8.040 brizes.

040 prizes. Tickets 84-Halves 82-Quarter 81

Tickets to be had at DABOI2, LOTTERY AND EXCHANGE OFFICE, (OPPOSITE THE POST OFFICE.) Jan. 24, 1835. R.